Ovarian Cancer Survivors Course

The Gynecologic Cancer Foundation will hold a free Ovarian Cancer Survivors Course in a handful of cities through the end of the year: Baltimore (July 18), Atlanta (August 22), Chicago (September 12), Las Vegas (October 10), and Washington, D.C. (November 7). The day-long course will include panel discussions and sessions on the biology of ovarian cancer, management of recurrent ovarian cancer, clinical trials and future treatments, quality of life, and survivorship. For more information, visit www.wcn.org/courses or call 312-578-1439.
