

Want a free ticket to see 'Kaleidoscope' taping?

Posted At : November 5, 2009 2:38 PM | Posted By : Melissa Weber

Related Categories: News, General

Cancer advocacy groups, sanofi-aventis US, and show producers have teamed up to offer cancer survivors a free ticket to the taping of Kaleidoscope, a television special to raise awareness for cancers that affect women.

The taping is Monday, November 16, at 7 p.m. at the Verizon Center in Washington, D.C., so if you're a cancer survivor who wants to attend, go to www.ticketmaster.com and enter "survivor" as the special offer code to get your free ticket (you'll have to cover a $2 per ticket handling charge).

Although the song-writing contest that Olivia Newton-John announced at ASCO's annual meeting this summer didn't pan out, the actress and singer will still perform at the event, as will American Idol's David Archuleta, Olympic figure skaters Scott Hamilton and Dorothy Hamill, and others.

The special will air on FOX at 4 p.m. Eastern on Thanksgiving Day. Get details at www.womenandcancer.com.